VA BRM (Business Reference Model)
2.6 - Provide Information and Technology Services

Provide Information and Technology Services includes the coordination of information and technology resources and systems required to support a service and involves the management, oversight and control of enterprise information.